TERMS OF ADMISSION.

For admission to the Freshman Class, candidates must be prepared to sustain an examination in the Latin and Greek Grammars, including Prosody; in Clark's or Mair's Introduction to the making of Latin; in Cicero's Select Orations, Virgil, Sallust, the Greek Testament, and Dalzel's Collectanea Græca Minora, or Jacob's Greek Reader. They must likewise be thoroughly acquainted with Arithmetic and Geography.

For admission to an advanced standing, candidates, in addition to the preceding qualifications, must have attended to the several studies of the Class which they propose to join. Every Student (with the exception of those who come regularly dismissed and recommended from another College) is required to pay a fee of $5 00, if he enter after the expiration of the second quarter of the Freshman year; and of $10 00, if after the second quarter of the Sophomore year.

MATRICULATION.

When a young man is examined and admitted to College, he is considered to be on probation, till he has attended one public examination. After which examination, if the Faculty are satisfied with his deportment and examination, he may be Matriculated, upon his giving bonds and signing a declaration, agreeably to prescribed forms.

DECLAMATION.

In addition to the Exercises in Elocution, before the respective instructors of the several classes, each member of the Senior Class, in regular succession, is required to speak before the whole College, once every term, after evening prayers; and twelve at least, from the three lower classes, speak in the Chapel, every Wednesday afternoon.

EXAMINATIONS.

There is a public examination of all the classes, before the Faculty of the College, a Committee of the Corporation, and such other gentlemen as please to attend, commencing on the third Tuesday in March; and another of the three lower classes, commencing on Thursday of the week preceding the Annual Commencement. The Seniors, as candidates for the degree of A. B., are likewise examined in the various branches of their College studies, six weeks before Commencement.

EXHIBITIONS.

One for the Senior Class, on the last Wednesday in November; and one for the Junior Class, on the day preceding the third Wednesday in May. Exercises in Elocution, for the Parkerian Premiums, on the evening before the Annual Commencement.

VACATIONS.

The first, four weeks from Commencement; the second, one week from the last Wednesday in November ; the third, two weeks from the second Wednesday in February ; and the fourth, two weeks from the third Wednesday in May.

EXTRA TERM.

For the mutual benefit of those students, who are under the necessity of teaching school three months in a year, and of those, whose parents wish them to be steadily employed in their studies, the Corporation, at their recent annual meeting, resolved to shorten the usual Fall Term, five or six weeks, and institute an Extra Term of ten or eleven weeks. Provision is accordingly made, for regular instruction during that Term, for those students, who do not teach school, in branches of learning additional to the stated College course. This Term is commenced on the first Wednesday in December ; or at the close of the Fall Vacation, of one week, and continued till the second Wednesday of February, or to the Winter Vacation of two weeks.

During the Extra Term all the Students, except those, who obtain permission to be absent for the purpose of teaching, are required to be present, and attend on two lectures or recitations, daily, except on the Sabbath ; and to attend morning and evening prayers every day, and public worship on the Sabbath.

The exercises during this Term will commence with morning prayers at 9 o'clock, and close with evening prayers at 4 o'clock.

The following studies are designated for the Extra Term ; from which a selection is to be made, for this winter, and due notice given in the Chapel.

For the First Division, composed of Seniors and Juniors.

1.—Greek Tragedies, edited by Prof. Woolsey ; Tacitus, Agricola, and the Manners of the Germans.

2.—Elements of Civil Engineering, or Burritt's Geography of the Heavens, or Smellie's Natural History, Ware's edition.

3.—Say's Political Economy, or Kent's Commentaries vol. 1, or Federalist.

4.—Hebrew, or German Language.

For the Second Division.

1.—Homer, Odyssey ; Leverett's Juvenal ; Gould's Ovid ; Latin Prosody and Composition.

2.—Eschenburg's Manual of Classical Literature.
3.—Tytler's History; Chronology.
4.—French Language.

For both Divisions.

Greek Testament Monday morning. English Composition.

EXPENSES.

The usual expenses of a Liberal Education are considerably diminished, in this College, by the ample Library of the Beneficent Society; from which indigent Students are gratuitously furnished with Text-Books; and other Students, at a small expense. Connected with the Institution is a Charity Fund, by which worthy indigent Students are aided in paying their College bills. There is also a Fund, for the encouragement of Literary Industry; from which three or four members of each Senior Class, distinguished for their attainments, and needing assistance, receive each a donation.

The following statement embraces the principal necessary expenses, viz :—

Tuition, $5 per quarter, - - - - - - -	$20
Room Rent, $1 50 per quarter, to $2 - -	6
Use of Library, Repairs, &c. about $2 - -	8
Board in private families, from $1 25, to $2; average about $1 50; amounting for three Terms to about	50
	$84
Seniors and Juniors, 50 cents Laboratory Fee,	2

Expenses of Extra Term, - - - - - - -	2
Board for Extra Term, - - - - - - -	15

PAYMENT OF BILLS.

At the close of the quarter, on the third Wednesday of November, of February, of May and August, Bills are made out and put into the hands of the Treasurer for collection. If in any case payment is not made immediately, interest is required. And if any Student suffers two College Bills to remain unpaid, it is made the duty of the Treasurer to report him to the Faculty, as delinquent; and if upon inquiry such delinquent Student fail to give a satisfactory reason, it becomes the duty of the Faculty, either to write to his parent or guardian, or to suspend him from the privileges of the Institution.

N. B.--To prevent unnecessary expenses, as well as for other important purposes, it is recommended, that every Student from a distance, especially if young, be placed under the patronage of some gentleman, who will attend to the appropriation of his money, and the payment of his bills.

COMMENCEMENT.

On the third Wednesday in August.
